Banpaluru School Announcement

No Gift Policy

Fiscal Year 2025

Banpaluru School recognizes the significance of fostering an organizational culture that upholds values and provides clear guideline for staff members regarding the giving and receiving of gifts or tokens, as well as any additional benefits derived from performing duties. To prevent actions that exploit power for personal or collective gain, adherence to government policies is essential. According to the reform plan, it is intended to prevent and combat corruption and misconduct.

To demonstrate a firm, resolve to combat all manifestations of corruption. In addition to promoting morality, Ethics, and integrity in the workplace. This results in an operation that adheres to the principles of good governance. I hereby certify that Banpaluru School is an organization in which all staff members are prohibited from accepting gifts or tokens before, during, or after performing their duties. To prevent actions that could compromise one's discretion or ability to carry out their responsibilities effectively. This results in discrimination or a conflict of interest. Executives and supervisors at all levels will serve as exemplary role models and supervise their subordinates effectively to ensure proper conduct. We will adhere scrupulously to measures designed to prevent fraud and misconduct.

This announcement is being made for the benefit of the general public and will be strictly adhered to.
